

Howdy pardners! Here it is almost Halloween and that means book fair is right around the corner. We hope you will be able to join us for an exciting fair with some gold nugget events. Remember that the book fair is about encouraging the love of reading. Nothing makes this message hit home more for children than having their loved ones participate in their reading choices. With that in mind...

Y'ALL COUNT YER PAGES, COWPOKES! - Nov. 13-16

Families are encouraged to count the number of pages read during book fair week. Daily tallies will be collected in each classroom and then recorded for all to see. So rope in a good book and read!

COWPOKE CAMPOUT - Tuesday Nov. 14, 4:00-6:30 p.m.

Saddle up and ride into the Reading Ranch for this pajama party! Enjoy this evening event together as a family. Start by changing into pajamas (cowboy hat optional) after school. Then head in to do some dynamite book fair shopping (available until 6:30 p.m.). Parents please shop with your children and help them find books they will truly enjoy. Story time and a prize drawing will take place every half hour in the computer lab adjacent to the library. Cowpoke selfies, games, and western dancing are part of the rewards for a hard day on the range. When y'all are shopped out, wrangle up those cowpokes and head to the GAC corral for a campfire feast provided by J. C.'s New York Pizza Department. Pick up a S'more or two along the way. There is a small charge for dinner, cash or credit card accepted. Proceeds from dinner do not benefit the book fair, but dinner is provided as a convenience to Head Wranglers Mom and Dad. Mark it on your calendar and ride in for the Cowpoke Campout!

GRAND WRANGLERS ROUNDUP - Thursday, Nov. 16, 2:30-3:30 p.m.

Stroll into the book fair and enjoy shopping with a cowpoke treat of oats and drinks. This event is for parents and grandparents who would like to do some holiday shopping "on the sly." The fair will be closed to everyone except parents and grandparents (no kids please until 3:30) so you can browse our book fair selections without the little buckaroos. Rope in a good book or two and our book fair pardners will even gift wrap so those buckaroos will be none the wiser. Don't forget to nibble at the food trough while you shop as well.

PARENT POSSE - Friday, Nov. 17, 8:00-12:00

If it's been a long week at the ranch and you still need to rope in some good books, we'll still have some of those most wanted books on Friday. The Reading Ranch will be open during parent-teacher conferences in the morning. Gift wrapping still available too. Stop in for some joe and a donut to go.

THERE'S AN APP FOR THAT - Download the free Scholastic Book Fair app on your personal device. This will allow you to scan the barcode of a book and receive book details such as a summary, age and grade level, reading level, videos, and recommended similar books.

DON'T FENCE ME IN - If you are out on the trail and can't make it into the Reading Ranch but would still like to purchase S'more books, you may visit our online fair which runs November 8th through November 21st. The online fair has the same selections that you would see at the fair. Books will be delivered in a few weeks to the library and then distributed to students.
